DENISE COTE, District Judge:

On April 8, 2021, defense counsel informed the Court that the defendant prefers that the initial conference scheduled for April 15 at 2:00 PM in this matter occur via videoconference as opposed to in person. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the conference shall proceed as scheduled via the Microsoft Teams videoconference platform, if that platform is reasonably available. To access the conference, paste the following link into your browser:

To use this link, you may need to download software to use the platform's videoconferencing features.¹ The link in this order is currently live. Participants are directed to test their videoconference setup in advance of the conference -- including their ability to access the link. Defense counsel shall assist the defendant in testing the videoconference capability so that the defendant can participate by videoconference. Participants, including defense counsel, shall report any difficulties accessing the link to chambers no later than 24 hours in advance of the conference so that chambers may assist the parties.

Users who are unable to download the Microsoft Teams application may access the meeting through an internet browser, although downloading the Teams application is highly recommended.² If the participant is using an internet browser, it is recommended to use either Microsoft Edge or Google Chrome as Teams is not fully compatible with other browsers. Participants should also ensure that their webcam, microphone, and headset or speakers are all properly configured to work with Microsoft Teams. For general guidelines for participation in

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that at that conference, a trial date will be chosen. After the Government recites the procedural history of this case, outlines the nature of the evidence it intends to offer at any trial, and proposes a schedule for the production of discovery materials to the defendant, the Court will consult the parties regarding the scheduling of the trial. After a trial date is selected, a schedule for motions will be set and the propriety of any exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act will be addressed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel for the Government and the defendant will consult in advance of the conference to reach agreement, if possible, on a proposed date for the trial.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that members of the press, public, or counsel who are unable to successfully access Microsoft Teams may access the conference's audio using the following credentials:
